In 2013, I was blessed to have met a wonderful man -Mark Taylor. He worked for The Timken Co. as a mechanical Engineer in Canton, OH. Sadly in 2025, he passed after struggling with Alzheimer's disease for several years.
My mother, 89 years young, lives with me & I have taken the role of her full time caregiver. I'm blessed to have her, along with one of my 12 grandchildren living with me as he attends College. And of course, my calico cat Callie.
Over the years, I have engaged in several of my loves- reading Amish fiction, quilting, cooking, singing, & Bible Studies both as a teacher & participant. I also love to travel & see/experience new places.
One of my favorite places to go is Sleeping Bear Dunes in MI. A day on the beach is always lovely!
I have 12 grandchildren , whom I adore!
I love spending time with my kids & grandkids. I especially love the holidays when they all come to OH!

Tell us about your career path: (Limit to 100 words)

In1976-1977, I attended Hinsdale School of PracticalNursing, graduated and after passing my state boards, stayed working there. This career path continued when we moved around to different places.
One of my most favorite jobs was working as a supervisor over a clinic within a large practice of many physicians at the North Canto Medical Clinic..
In 2010, I fulfilled a dream of obtaining my RN.
I worked in several Hospitals, a nursing home as the evening shift supervisor, then a huge career change as an occupational Health Nurse for The Goodyear Co. in Akron.

What is your proudest achievement: (Limit to 100 words)

Going to College andgetting my RN degree at 52!
That was no easy task. But it filled in a lot of blanks as I was an LPN for many years.
It was putting the answers to all of the why do we do it this way, what's behind the lab work.., so much more.
I've always loved nursing in all facets of the job.
I was a Candy Striper at Elmhurst Hospital when at WBHS. So, as a young girl, I had dreams of becoming a nurse.

Have you retired? What are you doing now:(Limit to 100 words)

Iretiredout of necessity - takingcare of my husband. He had an aortadissection w/wound complications. So thank God I knew how to take care of him.
I've traveled some, I do love to make anything quilted! Currently, I'm caring for my mom at my home.

Add anything else you would like to share with the class:

I enjoy cooking, reading, helping others…
Of course I love spending time with my children/grandchildren.
