What is your proudest achievement: (Limit to 100 words)
I frankly think it was mostly just keeping going in spite of hardship, limited funds, and complete lack of family support to achieve academic and career success, while also having children that could grow up in a loving home that I never had.

Have you retired? What are you doing now:(Limit to 100 words)
Yes, in Dec 2025. Nothing too exciting to tell you the truth. Writing, playing music, biking, hiking, Rotary Club, volunteering at the high school, trying to stay physically active. I'm actually still looking for things that engage my mind the way that my work did.

Add anything else you would like to share with the class:
I started writing poetry in 2008 and have some 3700 poems on my blog.
